1. This contest is open to amateur photographers only (anyone who does not make more than 25% of their yearly income from taking and/or selling photographs).
2. Each entry must be accompanied with an entry form and all submissions must be received at the FVWC office address by Friday, February 28, 2020.
3. Winners will be announced at the Annual Dinner Auction, held at Pipers Banquets in Aurora. All contest entries will be displayed at the event. Individuals with winning photographs will be notified prior to the dinner.
4. The subject must be Illinois wildlife (including mammals, birds, insects, amphibians, reptiles, fish, etc.). No human contact, please. Domestic (cats, dogs, cows, etc.) and zoo animals are not eligible.
5. Entries may be color or black and white images, un-mounted and unframed. Print size should be 8"x10", but 5"x7" will be accepted.
6. You must be the sole author and owner of the copyright in all photos entered.
7. Images must not have been digitally altered in any way other than necessary burning, dodging and cropping.
8. No limit on photos submitted.
9. Label all photo submissions with your name, address, telephone number, email address, a title for the photo, where the photo was taken and the equipment used to take it.
10. Photos will not be returned. All photographs will become the property of FVWC and may be used for non-profit publications, web pages, presentations and sales.
11. Judges appointed by the FVWC will choose the winners. The judges' decision on all matters relating to the competition is final.
12. First, second, third, fourth and fifth place awards are chosen.
13. Entries that do not adhere to the rules will be disqualified.
14. FVWC can't be held responsible for lost or incomplete entries.
