

Wildlife Scavenger Hunt

Overview

To be an effective wildlife rehabilitator in training at Fox Valley Wildlife Center (FVWC), you must have a strong background knowledge of wildlife. Complete the scavenger hunt below to build your knowledge and prepare for your training as a wildlife rehabilitator.

All About Wildlife

Click HERE or do an Internet search for Common Kane County Wildlife.

List 5 animals from each of the following categories: (Birds, Mammals, Reptiles, Amphibians, Invertebrates)

Birds	Mammals	Reptiles	Amphibians	Invertebrates

Wildlife Biology

Click HERE or do an Internet search for “fox valley wildlife center” and “learn about wildlife” to help answer the following questions.

What are 2 unique characteristics of mammals?

- a.
- b.

What are two species of bats found in Illinois?

- a.
- b.

What are animals called that hunt during the day? Give an example of one.

That hunt at night? Give an example of one.

What is the term for an animal that cannot regulate its own body temperatures internally?

List 3 animals that migrate in Kane County.

- a.
- b.
- c.

List 3 animals that remain active year-round in Kane County.

- a.
- b.
- c.

List 3 animals that hibernate in Kane County.

- a.
- b.
- c.

About FVWC

Click HERE or do an Internet search for “about Fox Valley Wildlife Center”

In what year was FVWC established?

What organization is FVWC a part of?

Fox Valley Wildlife Center Clinic Stats

Click HERE or do an Internet search for “Fox Valley Wildlife Center clinic” to learn about the rehabilitation of wildlife and to help answer the questions below.

On average, how many sick and injured wild animals are treated each year?

How many animals have been admitted to FVWC so far this year?

How many patients are currently being treated (Hint: look for patient count)?

What are the three most common species of animals currently admitted to FVWC?

Species:

How many are currently admitted:

a.

b.

c.